Decatur's waterworks tickle the people of that town so immensely that they will celebrate by a big gala day on Monday. Our Decatur correspondent has something to say about it.

A special sale of youth's and children's suits is on at the Long Brick, preparatory to the opening of school next Monday. A cut of 50c to $3.50 a suit is made from former prices. This is a whale of a chance, boys.

Some of the members of the Christian church living out of town have got the impression that no services are held because the church has no pastor. There are services every Sunday morning at the usual hour, to which all are cordially invited.

"It is the finest one in the city," so it is remarked by those who visit the attractive store of Jay Cumings. His stock of fall dress goods attract buyers from our neighboring towns, and well they may. Such beautiful goods merit the attention they are receiving.

A "mothers' meeting" will be held in the parlors of the Baptist church next Wednesday afternoon (Sept. 4) at 2:30. A 10-cent supper will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock. The W. C. T. U. are in need of money to carry on their work this fall, and it is hoped the supper will be liberally patronized.

There are entire blocks in this village, as shown by the school census, on which not a person between the ages of 5 and 20 reside. There is one family in the school district in which seven such persons are found.

The census of this school district, just completed by the president of the school board, shows 328 persons in the district between the ages of 5 and 20. This is a falling off of twenty as compared with the enumeration of last year.

Word has been received from Rev. J. H. Rennie, who is spending his vacation in Iowa, that he will not return before the 6th of September. Consequently there will be no services at the Presbyterian church until September 8th, when the usual services will be renewed. The weekly prayer meeting will be held as usual.

Miss Clara Anderson having resigned the superintendency of the Christian Sunday school, O. W. Rowland was chosen, on Sunday last, to fill the vacancy. J. F. Bullard was elected assistant superintendent to take the office made vacant by Mr. Rowland's promotion. Miss Anderson will organize a Junior Christian Endeavor society.

Col. David Anderson of Berlaumont, well known to many of our readers, is a hale and hearty old gentleman who was the second in a family of eight children, all of whom are living and whose ages range from 60 to 72 years. Three of his sisters married brothers named Whelan. The three are widows and are now visiting at Col. Anderson's home.

After a painful illness of several weeks, Mrs. William Lyle died last night. Her death cannot be said to have been unexpected, although her recovery was hoped for to the last. She was a highly respected lady and leaves one son, (John Smith of Antwerp), besides a large number of other friends and relatives who sincerely mourn her loss.

Wednesday evening, Lynn Ocoobock jumped from a wagon at the barn of Ocoobock Bros., to unhitch the team. He struck on a plank near the pump, which was wet, and he slipped and fell, dislocating his shoulder. He was taken home and Dr. Hoyt was summoned to reduce the dislocation. The injury was a painful one and will probably lay Lynn up for some time.

The heavy rain storm of last week Friday night put an end to the long continued drouth in this locality, and our farmer friends look better natured than before the rain. According to the rain gauge, 3 1/2 inches of water fell. Late potatoes and some pieces of corn will be much benefited, fall feed will now come on and the ground can be plowed and fall seeding done.

Friday afternoon, a large load of young people went for a hay-rack ride to Lake Park. The storm caught them on the return trip, and one side of the rack gave way, letting half the load fall to the ground. Miss Cleo Stevens was the only one much injured. Her shoulder was severely wrenched, and she was under the doctor's care for several days. The party arrived home thoroughly drenched.

You are not as handsome a man as you were when you courted your wife—not so well dressed. She probably loves you better to-day than she did then, in spite of your shabby appearance, but what a nice compliment it would be to her if you bought a new suit of "H. S. & M." clothes at the Long Brick Store, and tried to "spruce up" a bit. Women don't say much about these things, but they think of them just the same.

The calendar for the September term of court contains 79 cases, divided as follows: 16 criminal cases, 27 issues of fact, one issue of law, two imparlances, 18 first class chancery causes and 12 fourth class. The criminal cases are for the following offenses: Violation of local option law 5, assault 5, larceny one—four respondents, bastardy, adultery, false pretenses and placing obstruction on railroad track, one each. Ten of the chancery causes are for divorce and 16 are foreclosure cases. This is the largest calendar there has been for several years.

The annual school meeting will occur at the high school room next Monday evening, Sept. 2. The usual business of the district is to be transacted, including the election of two trustees to succeed Messrs. Broughton and Free, respectively director and treasurer of the board. Both these gentlemen have been valuable and conscientious officials, and the NORTHERNER recommends that they be their own successors. No member of the board has so much to do with the well-being of the school as the director, and since Mr. Broughton has occupied that position he has devoted a great deal of time and attention to the interests of the school, and we would not only like to see him put back on the board, but would like to see the board retain him as director, as well.

Paw Paw won the second game with Lawton, at the Cleveland Bay grounds on Wednesday, by a score of 13 to 8, although the Lawton aggregation came here with blood in their eyes and a determination to win the game in their hearts. Ten of Paw Paw's thirteen scores were secured in the sixth inning. Both teams were stronger than when they played at Lawton a week before, Lawton being strengthened by the addition of Shaefer, Snaby and Percy Lawton, Paw Paw by B. Showerman, Williams, Allen and Lee. The game, though an exciting one, was not as good an exhibition of ball playing as the first, both clubs at times becoming rattled and doing very ragged work. Briggs pitched the entire game for Paw Paw, but Lawton was obliged to take McElheny from the box and put in Tilou. Frank Stapleton of Decatur umpired the game. Another contest between the same teams will take place at Decatur next Monday. All the Paw Paw "cranks" will be there. Early in the season Lawton had the idea that Paw Paw couldn't make a ball game interesting to anybody.
